1. I, FREDERICK E. BRAGG, duly state that I am a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) assigned to the Syracuse Resident Agency. I have been so employed since July, 1991. My assignments include investigating violations of Federal Law, specifically violent criminal offenses.

2. I am the FBI case agent assigned to the robbery that occurred at the ACMG Federal Credit Union, 1753 Milton Avenue, Solvay, New York on March 22, 2007. The information provided in this affidavit is from personal knowledge and from information received from other law enforcement officers involved in this investigation.

3. On Thursday, March 22, 2007, at approximately 4:15 PM, an individual entered the ACMG Federal Credit Union, 1753 Milton Avenue, Solvay, New York, and entered the customer line. A few moments later, the subject approached a credit union teller and presented a note that was written on the back side of a check. The note read, "This is a robbery, give me the money." The subject then grabbed the right wrist of the victim teller. The subject then reached over the counter with his free hand and took currency from the teller's open

2 stated, words to the effect of, "Give me those bills there."
3 The subject then ran out of the credit union.

4 4. An audit conducted by credit union employees subsequent
5 to the robbery revealed that the loss was $850.00 in 6 federally insured credit union funds.
